'MYSTERY' SOLVED — The "mysterious object" which puzzled residents in the New Canaan, Conn., area turns out to be the instrument-laden gondola of Goodyear's big balloon, launched at Akron, O., to photograph the earth's surface from stratospheric altitude. It made a 455-mile soar eastward. Goodyear representatives do some puzzling themselves — how to get the gondola out of that thicket.

County May Get $50,000 For Road, Bridge Program

Due to a recent ruling by the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads, Pickaway County is in line to pick up an unexpected $50,000 for road and bridge improvement this year.

This statement was made yesterday by County Engineer Henry T. McCrady. He was referring to the status of the Crownover Mill Road bridge over Deer Creek.

The circumstances started last January and February when the area was plagued by devastating floods which washed out several roads and bridges including the Crownover Mill bridge.

At the time of the flood, Crownover Mill Road was a township road operating under the Ohio Civil Defense Corps.

THE COUNTY applied for repair funds for the road and bridge from the CD Corps and was granted $7,447.50 or 75 percent of total CD approved funds for emergency repair, to do the repair work.

Since that assistance was given, the Crownover Mill Road changed status last August and now is considered a Federal Aid Secondary system road.

Ike Writing New Chapter In History, Indian Says

Annexation of 120 Acres To Circleville Is Proposed

Annexation of nearly 120 acres of land east of the present corporation line is proposed.

The proposal was placed before the Pickaway County Board of Commissioners yesterday by J. Ludwig Haecker, chairman of the Circleville City Planning and Zoning Commission.

The commissioners said yesterday they will set a date Monday for a public hearing on the matter.

Meanwhile, City Council is awaiting Planning Commission action on subdivision regulations which would implement the proposed Master Plan for the city. At present, the city does not have subdivision regulations, but subdivision plats must be accepted by the city corporation limits.

The ANKROM subdivision is bounded on the east by the Walters farm; on the north by the Raymond Rader land; on the west by Nicholas Drive and the south by the Valentine property, and on the east by Nicholas Drive.

The Guenther subdivision is bounded on the north and east by the Walters farm; west by the city corporation limits, and the south by the C. B. Woolever and Edgington court properties.

There is a total of 60.76 acres in the Knollwood Development Co. property which is to be known as the Garden City subdivision.

Ankrom's land has 26.78 acres and the Guenther's subdivision has 29.65 acres. An additional 0.58 of an acre of Route 188 is included in the proposed annexation.

There is a total of 119.64 acres in the entire annexation proposal. Immediately upon presentation of the proposal by Haecker, Commissioner Clyde Michel, board chairman, raised the question of the advisability of the city accepting a county subdivision adjoining the city which will rely upon septic tanks for sewage control.

BUT ACCORDING to state law, no matter how the commission feels upon the advisability of approving a proposed annexation, the board has no choice but to approve it if it complies with existing subdivisions regulations.

The commissioners are not allowed discretionary powers in the matter of approving annexations. But if the city had a Master Plan in effect, governing the three-mile radius surrounding Circleville, the proposed annexation would first have to be approved by the city's planning and zoning commission.

This is not the case here, but could be if City Council passes the Master Plan in the near future.

The annexation proposal was signed by the only homeowners in the entire 119.64 acres—Waldo and Martha Martin, 404 Northridge Road.

Massive Crowd Triple Size Out For Khrushchev

Pilgrimage of Peace Called Significant During Current Era

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — President Eisenhower's spectacular visit to India led an Indian diplomat to predict today that it will open "a new chapter in world history."

M. C. Chagla, Indian ambassador to the United States, reported Prime Minister Nehru estimated the massive crowds that welcomed Eisenhower here Wednesday at 2½ million—three times the size of New Delhi's reception for Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev in 1955.

The 2½ million-figure is the biggest yet in estimates of the throngs which cheered, waved and crushed in upon the procession in which Eisenhower rode from the airport into New Delhi. Police had estimated 1½ million.

Eisenhower seized a chance today for his first real daylight rest since the beginning of his goodwill tour of three continents nine days ago.

With only two formal functions on his schedule, he relaxed at the russet-colored mansion of India's President Rajendra Prasad and caught up on White House business he is conducting 9,300 miles from Washington.

Eisenhower, who is bearing up well under the strain of his grueling trip, meets Nehru twice Sunday.

The two leaders are expected to issue a communiqué summing up their talks before the President leaves for Iran Monday.

Nehru told newsmen today Eisenhower's visit is a "pilgrimage in quest of peace" of special significance at this time in world events.

Chagla said he himself looks for no concrete results from the talks. "Nobody expected that," he added. "But when two great men dedicated to world peace meet together this way they can do a great deal indeed to change the atmosphere."

When the atmosphere changes, it is then that concrete and specific results can be expected."

Black Magic Cult Smashed

68 Persons Held In Hypnotic Trance

BERN, Switzerland (AP) — A black magic cult whose disciples were reported ruled by hypnotism and torture behind electrified barbed wire has been broken up by Swiss police raiders.

Paul Baumann, 42, former patient in a mental home, is under arrest as the master mind on charges ranging from interference with personal freedom to embezzlement.

Police Commissioner Ernest Spooeri gave these details at a news conference Friday night.

The raid was made last week on the fenced secluded Friedberg (Mountain of Peace) estate at Linden, a village 12 miles south of Bern.

Inside, raiding officers found 68 men, women and children in various stages of hypnotic trance.

All of the disciples were in a state of fear and subjection to Baumann.

The group, made up of Swiss and Germans, included a 15-year-old girl and Baumann's wife, 25.

Several had to be transferred to mental homes for psychiatric treatment.

The estate compromised five houses, a chapel with an altar dedicated to magic spirits, a movie theater and mechanical workshops.

New disciples, found by personal contact, were taken to the estate and told they had been chosen by the spirits to join the community.

They had to swear an oath of allegiance to the sect on an electrified book of magic which served a heavy charge through their bodies.

Incoming disciples were required to turn over all their cash and belongings to Baumann. The officers found a small fortune in cash and valuables.

He identified the fugitives as Wilder Cummings, 39, convicted of armed robbery at Wilkesboro, N.C.; John R. Kilbourn, 39, convicted of armed robbery at Winston-Salem, N.C., and Johnny Lee Miller, 28, sent up for manslaughter from Henderson County, N.C.

The three were among 20 convicts who broke out of the maximum security prison at Ivy Bluff, N.C., Tuesday, taking a small arsenal with them. Three still are at large.

Two pistols were found in the men's car.

Only 3 Cons Still Free After Escape

HARLAN, Ky. (AP) — Three dangerous convicts from a mass breakout in North Carolina were recaptured Friday night when they became lost in this mountain town.

State police Sgt. James Cox said one prisoner was arrested downtown and his two companions fled—only to return by mistake when they became lost again.

"Nobody resisted, nobody got hurt," Cox said. "A city police nabbed one and the city officers got the other two a short time later."

He identified the fugitives as Wilder Cummings, 39, convicted of armed robbery at Wilkesboro, N.C.; John R. Kilbourn, 39, convicted of armed robbery at Winston-Salem, N.C., and Johnny Lee Miller, 28, sent up for manslaughter from Henderson County, N.C.

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — President Eisenhower, 69, and with a history of three major illnesses in the last four years, is doing fine from a physical standpoint, his doctor said today.

Boy, 16, Eats More than Any Other Member of the Family

By GEORGE HAMRICK
County Extension Agent,
Agriculture

Food budgets are affected by age of family members as well as number in the family.

In general, food costs increase with age up to 20 years then decrease, according to the United States Department of Agriculture.

To illustrate, food economists used average country-wide retail food prices for August, 1958, to estimate that, on a moderate cost plan, feeding a 3-year-old boy would cost $4.50 a week compared to $11.50 for a 16-year-old boy and $8.50 for a 75-year-old man.

These estimates are based on home meals and not "eating out". The cost for feeding children at any age under 12 years is the same for boys or girls. Over 12 years old, boys and men need more food than girls and women at the same age and thus their food costs are higher.

It costs about a third more to feed a 16-year-old boy, on the average, than to feed a girl of the same age. Next to the teenage

Members Must Apply Before January 30

4-H club members may receive 200 trees free from the Ohio Division of Forestry to be used for a forestry planting. Club members who receive 200 of any of these species may take this as one of their 1960 4-H club projects.

To receive the trees a club member should contact the county extension office for the necessary application. The completed applications need to be returned to the county extension office by January 30.

There is a plentiful supply of food products, for we can be thankful, but the prices may be just a little higher in 1960. New equipment will be taking its toll of our consumer dollar.

Incinerators are expected to be an important appliance for more families. They can relieve the load of waste disposal through city sewage systems and septic tanks. Some cities have legislated against installation of new garbage disposers on kitchen sinks.

Evidence of growth of interest in floor cleaning is the advent of a new appliance that scrubs hard floors and vacuums them dry.

There is evidence that leisure time industries are taking a part of the consumer dollar that the appliance firm reported that more families own boats than own dishwashers, garbage disposers and air conditioners combined.

Some appliances with common American brand names on the market are being manufactured outside the country. The cost of labor in those countries make the products more competitive in price. The appliances to receive greatest acceptance during the first half of 1958 were: built-in ranges, up 45 per cent freezers, up 42 per cent; washer-dryer combinations, up 41 per cent.

4-H Deadline For Steers Is January 1

All 1960 4-H steer projects must be started by January 1. All boys and girls who wish to have steers as their project in 1960 must notify the county extension office before Jan. 1, 1960, of their desire to have the project.

Youth interested in steers may exhibit a maximum of two steers at the county fair in individual classes. The Columbus Junior Livestock Show will not be held in 1960 so do not plan on exhibiting at this event.

In addition to a pen-of-five, the youth may exhibit one other individual steer and three other animals at the county fair. Complete rules are available on request.

All youth in club work must be at least 10 years of age on Jan. 1, 1960.

Big City Reporter Finds America Is in Hinterland

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor
You have to get out of New York City every so often to get acquainted with America.

Just taking a plane to Chicago, Denver or Los Angeles doesn't do the trick. This is the usual New Yorker's mode of travel. The idea is to get there as fast as possible, finish your business and get home the same day if possible. It can be done, but you don't see much of the country.

I've been renewing old acquaintance with the heart and backbone of America for the past two weeks, and I can recommend it to any transplanted New Yorker who may have become so bemused with the big city that he thinks of the United States as merely four hours flying time between Manhattan and Hollywood.

You toss a couple of suitcases in the car and start out—across the George Washington bridge onto the New Jersey Turnpike and the Pennsylvania Turnpike, headed west. The first thing that will impress you, if you haven't done this sort of thing for some years, is the abundance and luxury of the motels along every main highway. Stop anywhere, and have the last word in modern comfort, at half the price of a single room in a New York hotel.

The farther you get from New York, the greater the courtesy and friendliness you encounter—at filling stations, roadside diners and motels. Strike up a conversation on politics and you'll pretty well be able to forecast the outcome of the next elections.

Look at the vast new industries in the South, the stately homes, the modern cities. Go hunting wild turkey and quail. Eat a southern meal of turnip greens, black-eyed peas and cornbread. Until you've sampled this fare, you haven't lived.

Head back east by the southern route—across Arkansas, Mississippi and Alabama, up the Skyline Drive through the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia.

Pvt. Teddy Wellington recently completed his four months of basic training in the U. S. Army at Fort Knox, Ky. He was assigned to a post in Germany. His wife, the former Toni Lee Merriman, plans to join

Let's Save the Caribou

A modern lesson in conservation is being taught Canadians in the disappearance of the colorful Caribou herds, once as common to barren lands of the North as the American bison was to Western United States. Like the bison, the caribou was primarily a source of food, fuel and clothing for the nomadic tribes originally settled in the area.

Various innovations, such as repeating rifles, and a deeply rooted tradition among the Eskimos to spare no targets in a herd have reduced the antlered population from millions to fewer than 200,000. As recently as 1949, there were 670,000 of the animals.

Although concerned by the threatened extinction of one of North America's most distinguished breed of animals, the government is powerless to interfere with Eskimo hunting habits because of treaties. It is attempting to educate the natives to the dangers of starvation they will face if unlimited killing of the herds is permitted to continue.

Recent winters have witnessed near-starvation of entire villages when the fall migration of caribou herds failed to materialize. Only by air rescue of entire communities has Canada been able thus far to avert serious tragedy.

With the decline of the caribou herds, a once large inland population of Eskimos has all but disappeared. Sea coast villages within easy access of abundant supplies of various marine life have replaced the self-

Birth Control in Politics

Politics sometimes crosses over the line into morals; morals too seldom influence politics.

Birth control is a moral issue for the individual. The Roman Catholic Church forbids mechanical means of birth control; all states of this country have made abortion illegal except when performed to save the life of the mother. In some countries, mechanical means for controlling birth are publicly and openly sold; in some abortions are not illegal.

One of the reasons for the current excitement over birth control is that there have been reports on the dangers of the population explosion," which, it is said, is taking place.

By that, it is meant that suddenly too many people are born and too few die and that therefore it will come to pass that there will not be sufficient food to feed the whole of mankind.

Another reason for the current excitement over this issue is that Sen. John F. Kennedy is an aspirant for the Democratic nomination for the Presidency and Sen. Kennedy is a Roman Catholic. His prospects are better than had been anticipated and those who oppose him or who oppose Roman Catholics per se would like to damage him. Also some Roman Catholics say that this is not the right time for a Catholic to run for President.

The birth control matter has ballooned into a political issue. Fortunately, President Eisenhower, who cannot run again constitutionally, is above this sort of politics. He said:

"... We do not intend to interfere with... the internal affairs of any other government, and if they want to do... something about what is admittedly a very difficult question... that is their business. And, if they want to go to someone for help... they will go unquestionably topless in all groups, not to governments . . ."

Sen. Kennedy's comment was more succinct:

"... we have to be very careful about how we give advice on this subject. The United States government does not advocate any policy concerning birth control here in the United States. Nor have we ever advocated such a policy in Western Europe.

"Accordingly, I think it would be the greatest psychological mistake for us to appear to advocate the limitation of the black or brown or yellow peoples whose population is increasing no faster than in the United States. They must reach decisions on these matters based on their own experience and judgment."

The Neo-Malthusians, as they are called, are very worried about the unusual increase of population during the 20th Century, particularly in the years subsequent to World War II. They fear that the food supply of the world will not be sufficient to feed this increasing population.

Two factors must be noted:

1. All world figures for population are rough estimates. No accurate, scientific census has ever been taken in China. It used to be that the estimate was based on counting chimneys and multiplying them by five. Only 30 years ago, it was estimated that the population of China was about 400,000,000. Today the figure given is 600,000,000. One figure is as accurate as the other.

2. While better methods have been employed in India and in some of the African countries, the figures remain estimates or educated guesses.

As the Asiatic and African populations have frightened the Neo-Malthusians more than the increase in Europe and the United States, it is very doubtful that they have absolute figures to sustain their fears. Furthermore, the food supply of the world is increasing. The United States has such a plethora of production that it is holding in a of price-supported farm products and the amount is increasing by about $3,000,000,000 annually.

The 1958 price-supported crops cost the Commodity Credit Corporation $3,969,000,000 for the 1958 fiscal year.

Wheat and rice production, not including Soviet Russian figures, are on the rise throughout the world. Undoubtedly the Russian show a rise because of the great effort put forth in that country not only to improve the crop but to open new lands to agriculture. The Sahara will ultimately mature into an area similar to the Imperial Valley of California.

In a word, there is no statistical evidence to be convincing that man will starve himself out of existence unless he practices birth control. It is a pity that this very complicated question arises during a political campaign in order to defeat one candidate.

Rocks hurled skyward by erupting Mount Kilawea in Hawaii struck and slightly damaged three there's one volcano that's really blowing its stack.

Britons will soon be feverishly collecting pictures of Queen Elizabeth. Her portrait will appear for the first time on a new issue of banknotes.

Michigan Chippewa and Ottawa Indians are suing the federal government for $15 million. Converted to wampum, wonder how many millions of beads that would add up to?

A British businessman is offering a prize of $14,000 to the first person able to fly under his own muscle power. Must be a hitch in that somewhere!

Sgt. Walter O. Parr Jr., replied bitterly: "In a world like this, what's a young man to look forward to?"

After the farewell, Dr. Parr made a silent vow.

"If my son returns," he told himself, "I will load a ship like that and send it to Korea with things of peace and goodwill."

The son returned. The vow was kept.

Dr. Parr organized the Texas Friendship Committee from his office at Fort Worth.

The Texas Friendship, loaded with donated farm animals, tools and food left for Korea in 1955.

With tears in his eyes Korean President Syngman Rhee personally thanked Dr. Parr, who had gone along on the ship.

A year later a 4-H Friendship sailed for Korea, and the trend was established.

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's White House years, drawing toward a close, have introduced a new kind of politics in 20th century America: The technique of the soft word.

Whether or not you like or admire him, this is a fact: He went into office a highly popular war hero and has remained not only extremely popular but amazingly free of personal criticism.

We are now looking for a good example.

The four Democratic senators being mentioned as presidential possibilities — John F. Kennedy, Hubert H. Humphrey, Stuart W. Symington, and Lyndon B. Johnson—are talking critically of the Eisenhower administration.

They even take oblique cracks at Eisenhower by saying what this country needs is leadership. But all of them are avoiding criticism of Eisenhower personally and by name.

He has remained so popular they might find it unpopular for themselves to do otherwise.

The President's present trip abroad is another illustration:

Everywhere he goes is wildly welcomed since, no matter how Europeans and Asians may feel about the United States, their image of Eisenhower is that of a friendly, well-intentioned man.

It may be argued, since America has been so generous with aid to them and remains their chief protection against communism, that in welcoming Eisenhower they are in effect saying hello to Santa Claus.

But then you have to remember the Soviets always speak well of him, too. This becomes understandable in terms of Eisenhower himself when you look back over the record of what he has said since becoming President.

You almost never find him talking in terms which could be considered provocative or belligerent or hostile. Instead, he has emphasized patience and restraint even when talking firmly.

In addition, he has carefully avoided personal attacks on others, thus depriving them of any excuse for attacking him personally.

All this is in contrast to the attitude of many people, at home and abroad, toward, say, former presidents Truman and Roosevelt who were often up to their necks in fights.

It might be argued here that if Eisenhower had been as willing as Truman and Roosevelt to initiate new and controversial programs, and fight as they did for them, he'd be hit with brickbats, too.

But their temperaments were different from Eisenhower's. Both were more belligerent and both were more aggressive toward others, especially in showing irritation toward opponents.

Eisenhower, for instance, had plenty of excuse for hitting back at the late Sen. Joseph McCarthy but avoided it. He could have lashed out, but didn't, at Premier Nikita Khrushchev for some of the difficulties the Soviet created.

Whether or not this adds up to the best kind of leadership is another, and long, discussion in itself. But certainly Eisenhower has been popular and free from abuse.

This soft-word technique of Eisenhower may have a moderating effect on his White House successor if only because it has proved politically so successful for Eisenhower, if this much is granted.

That a successful politician is one who, through retaining high popularity, can get himself re-elected. By that definition, no one can argue Eisenhower has not been successful.

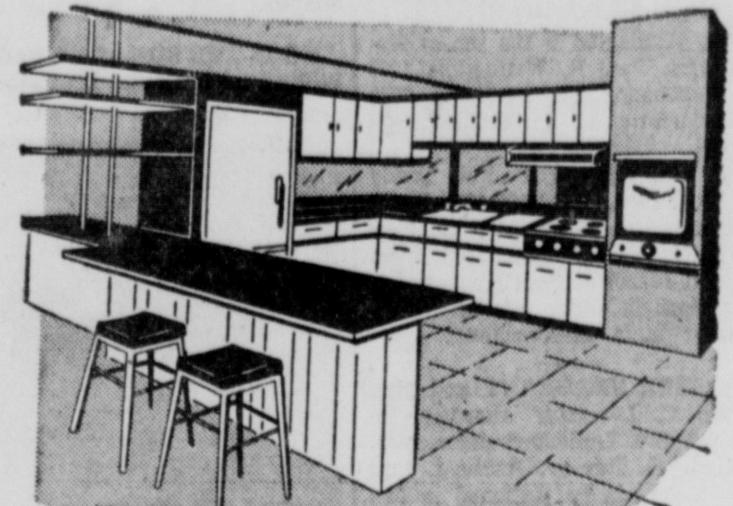

Some critics may argue that the key to Eisenhower's popularity is the result of his letting his lieutenants carry the load so that, if there is blame, it will be directed at them and not at him.

This doesn't hold water: Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson and the late Secretary of State John Foster Dulles were beaten over the head for years for their policies. But Eisenhower didn't hide behind them. Instead, he supported them fully all the way.

But so were Truman and Roosevelt. That argument is fallacious for another reason: Truman and Roosevelt lieutenants—like Secretary of State Dean Acheson and Secretary of the Interior Harold Ickes—were besmirched for years.

But so were Truman and Roosevelt.

B&PW Club Celebrates Its Anniversary at Party Here

Approximately 60 members and guests were present at the 36th anniversary and Christmas party of the Circleville Business and Professional Women's Club Thursday evening.

The Mecca Restaurant, 128 W. Main St., enhanced with delightful Christmas decorations was the setting for the event.

Following a turkey dinner by candlelight Dr. Nancy Lu Conrad took charge of the program. She introduced guests from Washington C. H., Waverly and Greenfield.

Mrs. Esther Work presented "Highlights of Our Past 36 Years". She stated that in November of 1923 Miss Mary Wilder along with several business women started the organization known as the Business and Professional Women's Club in Circleville.

Among the charter members were Miss Minnie Palm, Miss Mary Howard, Mrs. Ann Chandler, Miss Margaret Clark, Miss Nelle Palm, Mrs. Irma Stevenson and Mrs. Esther Work who are all active members of the club.

Some of the club's projects were furnishing the office of Berger Hospital when it was built; assisted with the purchase of new uniforms for the Circleville High School Band several years ago; gave a donation to the Christmas Light Committee for decorations in Circleville.

The club also loaned money, without interest, to help high school girls further their education; members have folded gauze and purchased stools for Berger Hospital; given food baskets for less fortunate families in Circleville; entertained city and county senior girls at a reception, etc.

Miss Sharon Sharrett gave the speech in which she won the Prince of Peace Contest. Miss Lois Wittich presented several vocal selections accompanied by Karen Foster.

Several Christmas carols were played by Judy Burkhardt on the harp. The members sang favorite carols and closed with singing "Silent Night".

Those in charge of the Christmas party committee were Alice Brown, chairman; Daisy Karleskint, Dorothea Woodard, Minnie Palm, Nancy Lu Conrad, Geneva Ullman, Etha Mae Wolford, Pearl Drum and Irma Stevenson.

Presbyterian Women Stage Christmas Program and Tea

The Rev. Charles Pindar, of Presbyterian National Missions, spoke on the subject, "Town and Country Churches in Ohio" yesterday afternoon at the Women's Association of the Presbyterian Church's Christmas Program and Tea.

Elizabeth and Ann Downing, Ann Adkins and Larry Thornton, formerly from Circleville, were associated in missionary work of the vacation bible schools in the southeastern section of Ohio during the past summer with the Rev. Pindar.

Mrs. Phillip Hardy opened the meeting with a short devotional service which included a Christmas message entitled "Inside Christmas" by Wilfred Peterson, followed by prayer and singing of carols.

The business meeting followed with Mrs. Lemuel B. Weldin in charge. The World Service Chairman, Mrs. H. N. Stevenson, reported on the sewing projects starting this year.

Mrs. Weldon reported for Mrs. Jasper Hedges, chairman of the Smorgasbord.

Installation of new officers was conducted by Mrs. Donald E. Mitchell with Mrs. Phillip Hardy, president; Mrs. Weldon, vice-president; Mrs. Glen Yapple, secretary; and Mrs. Adrian Yates, treasurer.

Mrs. Weldon and Mrs. Hardy presided at the table for the Tea.

Mrs. G. Guy Campbell decorated the table with a Delta Robbia wreath surrounded by gilded magnolia leaves on a red tablecloth with softly glowing candlelight.

CIRCLEVILLE SAVINGS and BANKING CO.Presbyterian

As you worship at the Presbyterian Church during Advent the thoughts uppermost in your mind will be "The Unspeakable Gift", the Christ Child, God's gift of His Son to the world.

You will consider how God speaks to you through each member of the Holy family, — through the mother Mary, — and Joseph Sog to the world.

In the first century the Roman ruler commanded every man to go to his own city to register and pay the tax. And Joseph also went to Bethlehem. It would seem, God used Joseph because He had some definite things He wants us to think about, which can only be said through Joseph.

"And Joseph Also," is the theme for the 10:30 a. m. hour of worship. The Rev. Donald Mitchell will read the Scripture from the Gospel according to Luke, chapter 2:17.

The music for this third Sunday in advent will be an anthem by the junior choir which is directed by Mrs. Fred Tammany. The choir also will sing an arrangement with the adult choir, "The Citizens of Chartres" by Dickenson with Mrs. Clark Will directing. The congregation will join in the singing of carols: "While Shepherds Watched", "Good Christian Men Rejoice" and "The First Nowell."

The offertory will be "The Morning Star" by Bach, arranged for organ and piano duet by Goldsworthy. Mrs. Joseph Adkins will be at the piano and Mrs. Theodore L. Huston at the organ. Mrs. Huston will also play "Joyous Changes on Three Carols" by Andrews, and Postlude on "Break Forth, O

Church of Christ

"The Greatest Work that God Allows Mankind To Do" will be the sermon topic presented by Jack Rankin, minister, at the 10:30 a. m. Worship Service at the Church of Christ tomorrow.

"You have taught me the truth. Because of you I have a hope of heaven, and I shall be eternally grateful to you." Has anyone ever said this to you? If not, you have missed one of the most sublime joys known in this world. Soul-winning is a work which enjoys certain guarantees from the Lord.

One of the guarantees is that of eternal fame: "They that turn many to righteousness" shall shine "as the stars for ever and ever" (Daniel 12:3). Included in this lesson are some very definite and practical things women can do to use their talents in personal work. Points will be studied concerning the "busy" person and personal work in today's world. A warm welcome awaits you.

Trinity Lutheran

This third Sunday in Advent, duplicate Worship Services will be conducted by Pastor Carl G. Zehner. The theme he has chosen for his sermon this Sunday at the 8:30 and 10:45 a. m. services will be "The Golden Call" based on Ex. 32:19, 20.

The adult choir, led by Fred Hebeier, will lead the singing at the early service. At the late service, the children's choir, under the direction of Mr. Clifford Kerns, will sing an anthem entitled "The Angels' Message".

The Nursery is open during the 10:45 a. m. service under the direction of Mrs. Edward Cross. Mrs. Carl Herrmann will preside at the organ at both services.

Services will be held at Christ Church, Lick Run at 2 p. m.

Tiger Clash with Blue Lions Brings 40-37 Cage Victory

Circleville's cage Tigers clawed at the ice with a fielder a minute after an early lead then hung on for dear life to preserve a cherished 40-37 victory at Washington C. H. last night.

It marked the second win in two South Central Ohio League starts for the Tigers and the second loop loss for the Blue Lions.

With Circleville leading 38-37, Tiger City Bailey calmly walked to the foul line with 14 seconds remaining in the test to sink two foul shots which insured victory.

The contest had reached a fast and furious pace in the last quarter when the Blue Lions staged an uphill battle to come within one point of deadlocking the count.

CIRCLEVILLE started with a bang on offense and defense to hold a 11-1 lead at the end of the first quarter which saw the basket-hungry Blue Lions go without a field goal.

The Tigers promptly ran the count to 13-1 before WCH cracked

Walnut Trounces Jackson, 62-40

An improving Walnut aggregation handed host Jackson its fourth loss last night, 62-40, behind the steady scoring of Tom Harber and Gary Hoover.

Hold to a narrow 15-11 first quarter lead, the Tigers unloaded a devastating second stanza attack to soar to a 41-18 margin at halftime.

Tom Harber found his scoring eye after a cold first period to scorch the nets for 10 points to aid Walnut's 55 per cent field goal percentage in the second period.

Continuing to out-rebound, out-shoot and out-run the Wildcats in the third period, Walnut raced to a 56-25 third period lead. Coach Paul Reiss substituted his second unit in the middle of the third quarter.

IT TALLIED three points while Jackson's varsity chalked up 18 points in the final two periods. This brought on Walnut's first unit to finish out the contest.

The story was all defense as Walnut held the Wildcats "at

Darby Halts Monroe, 87-57

The Darby Trojans entered the winning side of the ledger for the first time last night by blasting host Monroe, 87-57, behind the blistering scoring of Tommy Walters.

The honorable mention All-Ohio youth blazed away for 36 points on drive-ins and jump shots from all over the court in running Darby's record to 3-2 and 1-1 in Pickaway County League play.

The Trojans took a 23-9 first quarter lead, which they increased to 42-21 at intermission. They continued to mount the score in the third period to lead 62-34.

Tommy Liff followed running mate Walters in the scoring column with 22 points from all over on jump shots. Walters hit approximately 45 per cent of his shots from the field as he and Liff notched 58 of their team's 87 points.

LARRY BIGAM found the range last night to record 21 points, 11 coming from the foul line. Teammate Porter came up with 13 points.

Monroe was definitely hurt at the start of the third period when Steve Fuller and Roger Mowery, ace guards, fouled out.

The Indians, fell to their seventh straight loss against a season opening game win. A total of 40 personal fouls were called — 23 on Monroe and 17 on Darby.

The Monroe reserve squad managed to win, topping Darby, 40-33. It was Darby's fifth consecutive loss and Monroe's fourth win in eight outings.

CHS, Hillsboro Grab Lead in SCO Standings

Circleville and Hillsboro zoomed into first place in the South Central Ohio cage league following wins last night.

Circleville bounced Washington C. H., 40-37, and Hillsboro bested Franklin Heights, 71-56, to give each team 2-0 records for the young season.

With about two minutes remaining, Hicks gave CHS a 38-34 lead with two free throws. The game then reached fever stage as Stillings made a foul throw and a drive to cut the margin to 38-37.

ONLY 14 seconds remained when Bailey was fouled bringing the ball down the floor. Coach Snouffer decided to go for the one-and-one situation and Bailey made his strategy look good by swishing both attempts.

Circleville won the game at the foul line, making good on 12 of 23 attempts. The locals collected 14 buckets in 43 tries for a 32.5 per cent shooting average.

Washington made good on 16 of 58 chances from the field for a 27.5 per cent mark. The hosts shipped by getting only 11 attempts at the foul line and making five.

The CHS Reserve Kittens dropped a 39-32 test to the young Blue Lions. The locals dropped behind, 18-9, at halftime. They staged a comeback in the final canto, but the effort came too late.

Clesson Thomas and Dick Kline shared scoring honors for the Kittens with seven points each. Enoch was high for Washington with 10.

The Tigers play their second home test of the season tonight when the strong Cavaliers of Chillicothe invade the E. Mill St. gym.

The Cavaliers downed Coshocton last night, 69-53. Chillicothe was the only team to defeat CHS on the home floor last season.

CIRCLEVILLE slowed down in the second canto to score 10 points, with Hannahs getting six of them. Shadley added a jump shot and Bailey made good on two foul tosses.

Stillings and Southworth led the way for WCH as the hosts suddenly started to roll in racking up 16 points during the second episode.

Reno, Pfersick and Stillings combined forces to keep the visitors within striking distance. The third stanza ended, 32-25, but plenty of action was to follow.

Washington staged a serious threat early in the fourth chapter when Pfersick and Flee hit consecutive buckets from underneath to bay all night. Jackson was unable to get near the bucket and even then was limited to one shot before Harber, Gary Hoover and Boyd Boone grabbed the rebound. Rugged play raked the game as a total of 22 personal fouls were called—seven on Walnut and 15 on the Wildcats. Both Marion Guseman and Robert Etel fouled out in the third period for Jackson.

The contest saw Walnut's Gary Hoover led the Tigers to a 15-11 first quarter lead. The Etel brothers, Bob and Larry, tallied four each for Jackson.

Behind Harber's 10 second period points were Gary Hoover's and Bill Hoover's seven points apiece.

Jackson was limited to three baskets and a free throw.

Both teams used a 3-2 zone defense throughout the game except for Jackson's full court man-to-man defense in wanning minutes of the game.

THE TIGERS shot 37 per cent the first half to Jackson's 20 per cent. After soaring to a 53-22 third period margin, Reiss substituted and saw his 31-point margin dwindle to a 56-40 score before he called upon his varsity to stave off the Jackson rally.

The Wildcats biggest mistake was trying to play Walnut's fast brand of basketball. The Tigers passed and handled the ball well, but Jackson had trouble keeping pace.

Harber and Gary Hoover closed out the contest with 19 points each, followed by Bill Hoover's nine and Lloyd Davidson's eight.

Milton Martindale was top man for the Wildcats with 13 points. Larry Etel trailed with 10 markers. Walnut committed 19 turnovers, mainly by its second squad, and Jackson miscued 13 times.

Kingston played a running game last night to blast invading Buckskin, 82-54, in a Ross County League contest.

The Redskins, upset last week by Centralia, 51-50, because they didn't shoot enough, instituted an entirely different brand of ball last night.

They shot 71 times from the field, recording 35 buckets, for a 49.3 per cent shooting average.

Buckskin, far from equaling this torrid percentage, connected on 18 of 55 attempts for a 32.8 per cent edge.

Kingston iced the game in the first quarter when it scared the nets for 14 of 19 field goal attempts. Leading 28-8 at the first period mark, the Redskins coasted home.

DAVID NOGLE had the best night of his career with a 32-point attack. Bill Carmean had one of his better games with 22 points.

High man for Buckskin was Johnson with 27 points, 13 coming on free throws. There were 30 personal fouls called, 18 on Kingston and 12 on the Buckskin Wildcats.

While Nogle blitzed Buckskin on drive-ins, hitting 13 of 23 tries, Carmean was hooking and scoring from the corner, connecting on 10 of 15 attempts. Johnson hit 13 of 19 free throw offerings.

This was Kingston's fifth win in seven starts and first in league play. Buckskin dropped its third test in seven starts.

The Redskins made it a double victory by stopping Buckskin's reserve unit, 49-45. Dave Hood noticed 14 points for the Redskins while Larry Lauerman was garnering 19 rebounds. It was the Kingston junior varsity's fifth win against two losses.

WALNUT'S record is now 3-1, with two league victories under its belt for a first place tie. Jackson has its fourth game in six starts.

The Jackson reserves registered victory No. 2 by downing Walnut, 32-23. Benny List and Bob Martindale were high men for the Wildcats. Walnut, losing its fourth straight game, was led by Larry Cremeans and Wayne Sheets' six points each.

HARRISON picked up his second decision and Wing pushed his record to a pin and decision in two tries. Cain picked up a pin in his first attempt of the season.

The forfeit in the 175-pound class went to ex-footsaller Danny Leonardi. Last week he gained a

The Indians ran their record to five straight wins in posting their second straight Fairfield County League win. Jimmy Cole tore into Amanda defenses for 24 points, his high point total of the young season.

Stoutsville's Bobby Sells posted 16 markers to tie Amanda's Roger Gussert. Bill Brown, the Aces star guard, clocked up 15 points.

The Indians rolled to a 14-9 first quarter lead, but fell behind at intermission, 20-17. Pickaway battled back into a third period tie with the Raiders, 31-31.

Pickaway had the ball with six seconds to go, but missed its last shot. Atlanta, with a two-point lead and 15 seconds to go, had a man shoot from a deep side position, missing the basket completely.

PICKAWAY'S Ralph England and Atlanta's Ronnie Morris led the scoring with 16 points each. Norman Wilson, the Pirates ace rebounder, checked in with 14 points, his high point total of the young season.

Perry Twp.'s top-notch rebounder, Tommy Oyer, was out with a sprained ankle.

This was the Pirates fourth loss in five starts. Atlanta recorded win No. 3 against four defeats.

The Pirates captured the reserve contest, 37-34, in a thriller. The Pirates reserves own a 3-2 record 2-2 on the season and Atlanta stands, 3-4.

BEHIND THE stellar rebounding of Cole and Kelly Crites, the Indians outscored Amanda, 33-25, in the final two periods.

Foothill-minded Amanda dropped its second straight game. The Aces downed the Stoutsville reserves, 33-24. This was the Indian junior varsity unit's second loss in five puttings.

Ashville Topples Saltcreek For Fifth Straight Victory

Ashville's cage superiority came to the front last night as it took a 40-14 halftime lead to topple invading Saltcreek, 71-40.

Substituting freely in the final two periods, the Broncos added a Warrior scalp to its belt for win No. 5 in a row without a defeat.

The Warriors were dropped to their fourth loss and out of a five-way tie for first place in the Pickaway County League. Ashville, meanwhile, remained in a league leadership tie with Walnut with identical 2-0 slates.

Oscar Robertson hit for 48 points Friday night as Cincinnati overwhelmed St. Joseph's of Philadelphia 123-79. It was the night, highest of any Ohio players thus far this season, wasn't his only contribution, he grabbed 17 rebounds as the Bearcats made it 4-0 for the season.

A torrid 24-9 lead was racked up by the victor's in the first seven minutes.

Cincinnati sank 47 of 86 field goals and the Hawk's hit with 32 of 82 tries.

At halftime the Bearcats lead 37-33 with Robertson accounting for 25 of the total.

The defeat was the Hawks' first in four starts.

In the Ohio Conference action Friday, Kenyon trimmed Hiram 74-59 and Denison edged Marietta 75-71.

The lead in the Denison-Marietta game changed hands 19 times and tied 13 times. Shooting percentages were low for both teams as the Big Red hit for 30 per cent and the Pioneers for 31.

Top man of the evening was Marietta's Sam Hirt with 23 points. Jerry Weddell hit for 21 for the victors.

In other Ohio games Friday, Bluffton dropped in 22 of 30 free throws to down Albion (Mich.) 78-62. Both teams scored an equal number of field goals.

Wooster handed Western Reserve its fourth straight cage loss, 70-69; Clarion (Pa.) nipped Malone of Canton 79-64, Allegheny dumped Fenn 62-45, and McKenree of Illinois downed Central State 80-76.

The Steel Bowl at Pittsburgh and the Treasure State classic at Bozeman, Mont., Friday night opened a big list of major college basketball tournaments that will run through the Christmas Holidays. Next Friday, four more big tournaments will get under way.

But while Pittsburgh and Duquesne were setting up a hometown finale for the Steel Bowl for the second straight year, and Oklahoma City and Montana State gained the finals of the Bozeman affair, two Atlantic Coast Conference teams were making it tough for a pair of Big Eight Conference teams at Raleigh, N.C.

Slightly favored Kansas State, defending Big Eight champions, was handed a 66-59 defeat by North Carolina State. Kansas, a winner over Northwestern and Texas Tech, was beaten 60-49 by North Carolina.

Pitt, soundly trounced by Ohio State and Purdue recently, pulled a shocker by downing St. John's of Brooklyn—the 1959 National Invitational champions—74-73. William and Mary, undefeated in four starts, was beaten by Duquesne 53-52.

Oklahoma City ran up to 40-26 halftime lead over San Francisco and sailed into the finals with a 71-54 victory. Larry Chanay led Montana State to a 81-75 victory over Oregon with 32 points.

Pitt, which beat Duquesne in the Steel Bowl final last year, trailed St. John's 43-54 in the second half. Then Pitt rallied for 15 straight points for a 58-54 lead and the ball game. Duquesne won its third straight, after trailing 22-26 at halftime.

Jim Bottomley Dies at Age 59

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Sunny Jim Bottomley, 59, the only player in major league baseball history to drive in 12 runs in one game, died of a heart ailment while Christmas shopping Friday.

The former first baseman, the National League's most valuable player in 1929 and a veteran of 15 seasons with the St. Louis Cardinals, Cincinnati Reds and old St. Louis Browns, lived up to his name until the end. He was joking with a friend only moments before he was found slumped over the wheel of his car in a downtown parking lot.

It was on Sept. 16, 1924, that James Leroy Bottomley wrote his name into the record books with six hits good for 12 RBI against the Brooklyn Dodgers. The hits included two home runs, a double and three singles.

20 Speed Lovers Open Grand Prix

SEBRING, Fla. (AP) — Twenty men who live for the thrill of speed roared away from the starting line today in one of 1959's most important automobile races, the grand prix of the United States.

At stake in the dangerous 218.4-mile battle is the world's road racing championship. In many countries, this is the most wanted of all sports titles and the winner is a star of awesome proportions.

In the pole position was Sterling Moss of England, runner-up to the champion.

His desire to reach the top was shown in the time trials, when he covered the 5.2-mile Sebring course in three minutes flat at an average of 104 miles an hour.

'MYSTERY SOLVED' — The "mysterious object" which puzzled residents in the New Canaan, Conn., area turns out to be the instrument-laden gondola of Goodyear's big balloon, launched at Akron, O., to photograph the earth's surface from stratospheric altitude. It made a 455-mile soar eastward. Goodyear representatives do some puzzling themselves — how to get the gondola out of that thicket.

County May Get $50,000 For Road, Bridge Program

Due to a recent ruling by the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads, Pickaway County is in line to pick up an unexpected $50,000 for road and bridge improvement this year.

This statement was made yesterday by County Engineer Henry T. McCrady. He was referring to the status of the Crownover Mill Road bridge over Deer Creek.

The circumstances started last January and February when the area was plagued by devastating floods which washed out several roads and bridges including the Crownover Mill bridge.

At the time of the flood, Crownover Mill Road was a township road operating under the Ohio Civil Defense Corps.

THE COUNTY applied for repair funds for the road and bridge from the CD Corps and was granted $7,447.50 or 75 percent of total CD approved funds for emergency repair, to do the repair work.

Since that assistance was given, the Crownover Mill Road changed status last August and now is considered a Federal Aid Secondary system road.

Ike Writing New Chapter In History, Indian Says

Annexation of 120 Acres To Circleville Is Proposed

Annexation of nearly 120 acres of land east of the present corporation line is proposed.

The proposal was placed before the Pickaway County Board of Commissioners yesterday by J. Ludwig Haecker, chairman of the Circleville City Planning and Zoning Commission.

The commissioners said yesterday they will set a date Monday for a public hearing on the matter.

Meanwhile, City Council is awaiting Planning Commission action on subdivision regulations which would implement the proposed Master Plan for the city. At present, the city does not have subdivision regulations, but subdivision plats must be accepted by Council.

The project is at a standstill until McCrady and U. S. Army Engineers determined the exact location of the dam.

Many observers to the scene feel that whether the bridge and road conflict with the Conservancy District's dam or not, it makes no difference, because the district is technically defunct and is on its last "legs" in the Ohio Supreme Court now.

McCrady said each Ohio county is entitled to approximately $3,000 of Federal Aid money each year for road and bridge repair on strategically located roads and highways.

He said many counties do not take advantage of this money for any number of reasons. Therefore, the county can apply for unused funds of other counties to offset its overspending. He said this county has taken advantage of the Federal money every year.

INSTEAD OF obtaining a little over $7,000 for the bridge repair, the county ends up with $50,000 in its coffers to repair the bridge that was ready to fall down again, according to McCrady.

The problem then arose of what to do with the CD Corps money and if the $2,590.41 already spent had to be returned. McCrady has written ably will be in the near future. Owners of the land involved are the Knollwood Development Co., Dale M. Ankrom, Otto F. and Mary V. Guenther, Charles H. Walters and Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Martin.

The Knollwood Development property is bounded on the north by State Route 188; on the west by the city corporation limits and Berger Hospital; on the south by the Valentine property, and on the east by Nicholas Drive.

THE ANKROM subdivision is bounded on the east by the Walters farm; on the north by the Raymond Rader land; on the west by Nicholas Drive and the south by the city corporation limits.

The Guenther subdivision is bounded on the north and east by the Walters farm; west by the city corporation limits, and the south by the C. B. Woolever and Edgington court properties.

There is a total of 60.76 acres in the Knollwood Development Co. property which is to be known as the Garden City subdivision.

Ankrom's land has 26.78 acres and the Guenther's subdivision has 29.65 acres. An additional 0.58 of an acre of Route 188 also is included in the proposed annexation.

There is a total of 119.64 acres in the entire annexation proposal.

Immediately upon presentation of the proposal by Haecker, Commissioner Clyde Michel, board chairman, raised the question of the advisability of the city accepting a county subdivision adjoining the city which will rely upon septic tanks for sewage control.

Latest Model Ike Doctrine Working Fine

President's Message To India Is Seen Mending U.S. Fence

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Less than three years ago the Eisenhower Doctrine boomeranged. Today it seems highly likely a new Eisenhower doctrine is emerging — and this one has every chance of being a rousing success.

The message brought by the American President to India plus the impact of his personality may prove in the long run a big help in mending U.S. fortunes in areas where they have been sagging.

The new Eisenhower doctrine is suggested in salient points of his pronouncements in India.

These are the U.S. stands for peace and genuine disarmament, determination to help friends against aggressors, need for people-to-people contacts, need for recognition of world law and, most important in this area, the need for a massive "noble" war against hunger.

They were accompanied by a party of top aides and policy advisers, including Foy D. Kohler, assistant secretary of state for European affairs, and Charles E. Bohlen, Herter's new special adviser on Soviet relations.

Herter, Anderson and Gates will represent the United States in a Cabinet-level meeting of the North Atlantic Treaty Council in Paris beginning next Tuesday. Herter is expected to make a drive for greater contributions by the main European allies, particularly West Germany and France, to the military strength of NATO and Europe.

He has indicated he also will ask European leaders to study ways of relieving the United States of some of the financial burden it now bears in connection with the maintenance of its own forces in Western Europe.

In his departure statement, Herter noted that on Dec. 18 he will go to Toulon, a French Mediterranean port, to meet President Eisenhower and return with him to Paris for a Western heads of government meeting. The conference will begin next Saturday and continue through the following Monday.

"While there appears to have been some easing of the atmosphere of crisis recently," Herter said, "the Soviet Union's willingness to take concrete action toward equitable settlements of major international problems remains to be demonstrated. Certainly nothing has happened to date to justify lowering our guard."

"The maintenance and further improvement of the defensive strength of the NATO alliance continues to be of the greatest importance."

Herter said the NATO council will discuss plans for the projected summit meeting with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev next spring. The views developed in these discussions will be reported to Eisenhower, French President Charles de Gaulle, Prime Minister Harold Macmillan of Britain and German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer when they meet in the Western summit conference.

He said any railway work stoppage would not be likely to come before May 1.

Leighy said rail unions are sending questionnaires to all recognized labor arbitrators who might be called on to serve on an emergency board named by the White House in the contract dispute.

The questionnaires, he said, are designed to find out if potential arbitrators have been "brainwashed" by what he called a multimillion dollar propaganda campaign by railroads on the "featherbedding" issue.

Leighy said the questionnaires asked potential arbitrators if they believe rail workers are overpaid; paid for work not performed; whether state laws require unneeded overloading of payrolls; whether railroads are in desperate financial straits.

Leighy said But because of nationwide advertising by the railroads, he added, "seven out of 10 Americans mistakenly believe they are true."

no matter how the commission feels upon the advisability of approving a proposed annexation, the board has no choice but to approve it if it complies with existing subdivisions regulations.

The commissioners are not allowed discretionary powers in the matter of approving annexations. But if the city had a Master Plan in effect, governing the three-mile radius surrounding Circleville, the proposed annexation would first have to be approved by the city's planning and zoning commission.

This is not the case here, but could be if City Council passes the Master Plan in the near future.

The annexation proposal was signed by the only homeowners in the entire 119.64 acres—Waldo and Martha Martin, 404 Northridge Road.

Massive Crowd Triple Size Out For Khrushchev

Pilgrimage of Peace Called Significant During Current Era

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—President Eisenhower's spectacular visit to India led an Indian diplomat to predict today that it will open "a new chapter in world history."

M. C. Chagla, Indian ambassador to the United States, reported Prime Minister Nehru estimated the massive crowds that welcomed Eisenhower here Wednesday at 2½ million—three times the size of New Delhi's reception for Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev in 1955.

The 2½ million-figure is the biggest yet in estimates of the throngs which cheered, waved and crushed in upon the procession in which Eisenhower rode from the airport into New Delhi. Police had estimated 1½ million.

Eisenhower seized a chance today for his first real daylight rest since the beginning of his goodwill tour of three continents nine days ago.

With only two formal functions on his schedule, he relaxed at the russet-colored mansion of India's President Rajendra Prasad and caught up on White House business he is conducting 9,300 miles from Washington.

Eisenhower, who is bearing up well under the strain of his grueling trip, meets Nehru twice Sunday.

The two leaders are expected to issue a communiqué summing up their talks before the President leaves for Iran Monday.

Nehru told newsmen today Eisenhower's visit is "a pilgrimage in quest of peace" of special significance at this time in world events.

Chagla said he himself looks for no concrete results from the talks. "Nobody expected that," he added. "But when two great men dedicated to world peace meet together this way they can do a great deal indeed to change the atmosphere."

When the atmosphere changes, it is then that concrete and specific results can be expected."

Only 3 Cons Still Free After Escape

HARLAN, Ky. (AP)—Three dangerous convicts from a mass breakout in North Carolina were recaptured Friday night when they became lost in this mountain town.

State police Sgt. James Cox said one prisoner was arrested downtown and his two companions fled—only to return by mistake when they became lost again. "Nobody resisted, nobody got hurt," Cox said. "A city policeman nabbed one and the city officers got the other two a short time later."

He identified the fugitives as: Wilder Cummings, 39, convicted of

Boy, 16, Eats More than Any Other Member of the Family

Agriculture

Food budgets are affected by age of family members as well as number in the family.

In general, food costs increase with age up to 20 years then decrease, according to the United States Department of Agriculture.

To illustrate, food economists used average country-wide retail food prices for August, 1958, to estimate that, on a moderate cost plan, feeding a 3-year-old boy would cost $4.50 a week compared to $11.50 for a 16-year-old boy and $8.50 for a 75-year-old man.

These estimates are based on home meals and not "eating out". The cost for feeding children at any age under 12 years is the same for boys or girls. Over 12 years old, boys and men need more food than girls and women at the same age and thus their food costs are higher.

It costs about a third more to feed a 16-year-old boy, on the average, than to feed a girl of the same age. Next to the teenage years, food costs increase with age up to 20 years then decrease, according to the United States Department of Agriculture.

4-H Deadline For Steers Is January 1

All 1960 4-H steer projects must be started by January 1. All boys and girls who wish to have steers as their project in 1960 must notify the county extension office before Jan. 1, 1960, of their desire to have the project.

Youth interested in steers may exhibit a maximum of two steers at the county fair in individual classes. The Columbus Junior Livestock Show will not be held in 1960 so do not plan on exhibiting at this event.

The pen-of-five feeder cattle project is one in which you have no competition. The main object of this project is to raise cattle that will make a profit. Youth who are 12 or over and have steer breeding experience are eligible to have this project.

In addition to a pen-of-five, the youth may exhibit one other individual steer and three other animals at the county fair. Complete rules are available on request.

All youth in club work must be at least 10 years of age on January 1, 1960.

Don't forget, enroll for your steer projects now.

Ohio AFL-CIO Says Lausche Should Join Republicans

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio AFL-CIO headquarters issued a statement today saying the voting record of U.S. Sen. Frank J. Lausche, Ohio Democrat, shows his "sympathies lie with the most reactionary elements of Congress and against the best interests of the people."

The labor organization said it bases its statements on an "unbiased analysis" of the senator's voting record, and cited a study in the Congressional Quarterly. It said the report disclosed that Lausche "voted in support of the GOP-Dixiecrat coalition in Congress more than any Northern Democrat."

The AFL-CIO statement said Lausche "should stop claiming himself as a Democrat and join the party of his allegiance, the Republican party."

Let's Save the Caribou

A modern lesson in conservation is being taught Canadians in the disappearance of the colorful Caribou herds, once as common to barren lands of the North as the American bison was to Western United States. Like the bison, the caribou was primarily a source of food, fuel and clothing for the nomadic tribes originally settled in the area.

Various innovations, such as repeating rifles, and a deeply rooted tradition among the Eskimos to spare no targets in a herd have reduced the antlered population from millions to fewer than 200,000. As recently as 1949, there were 670,000 of the animals.

Although concerned by the threatened extinction of one of North America's most distinguished breed of animals, the government is powerless to interfere with Eskimo hunting habits because of treaties. It is attempting to educate the natives to the dangers of starvation they will face if unlimited killing of the herds is permitted to continue.

Recent winters have witnessed near-starvation of entire villages when the fall migration of caribou herds failed to materialize. Only by air rescue of entire communities has Canada been able thus far to avert serious tragedy.

With the decline of the caribou herds, a once large inland population of Eskimos has all but disappeared. Sea coast villages within easy access of abundant supplies of various marine life have replaced the self-sufficient civilization which long existed in the expanse of barren country west of Hudson Bay.

There is a greater tragedy to the disappearance of the North American version of Europe's reindeer than the dislocation of Eskimo tribes. There is no shortage of food in Canada and many substitutes for the Eskimo diet are available. There is no substitute, however, for the natural abundance which is so characteristic of an unspoiled land.

There are few spots left in the world which retain as much natural beauty as the unsettled areas of northern Canada. Nor is there any animal as representative of the area as the caribou.

Nature's balance has been disturbed to the point where virtual annihilation of the caribou is imminent unless drastic curtailment of its slaughter is achieved. The buffalo no longer roams the American West in thundering herds as it once did, but its demise has been stopped and its depleted population increased. Certainly the caribou deserves no worse fate.

Birth Control in Politics

Politics sometimes crosses over the line into morals; morals too seldom influence politics.

Birth control is a moral issue for the individual. The Roman Catholic Church forbids mechanical means of birth control; all states of this country have made abortion illegal except when performed to save the life of the mother. In some countries, mechanical means for controlling birth are publicly and openly sold; in some abortions are not illegal.

One of the reasons for the current excitement over birth control is that there have been reports on the dangers of the population explosion," which, it is said, is taking place.

By that, it is meant that suddenly too many people are born and too few die and that therefore it will come to pass that there will not be sufficient food to feed the whole of mankind.

Another reason for the current excitement over this issue is that Sen. John F. Kennedy is an aspirant for the Democratic nomination for the Presidency and Sen. Kennedy is a Roman Catholic. His prospects are better than had been anticipated and those who oppose him or who oppose Roman Catholics per se would like to damage him. Also some Roman Catholics say that this is not the right time for a Catholic to run for President.

The birth control matter has ballooned into a political issue. Fortunately, President Eisenhower, who cannot run again constitutionally, is above this sort of politics. He said:

"...We do not intend to interfere with...the internal affairs of any other government, and if they want to do...something about what is admittedly a very difficult question...that is their business. And, if they want to go

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's White House years, drawing toward a close, have introduced a new kind of politics in 20th century America: The technique of the soft word.

Whether or not you like or admire him, this is a fact: He went into office a highly popular war hero and has remained not only extremely popular but amazingly free of personal criticism.

We are now looking for a good example.

The four Democratic senators being mentioned as presidential possibilities — John F. Kennedy, Hubert H. Humphrey, Stuart W. Symington, and Lyndon B. Johnson—are talking critically of the Eisenhower administration.

They even take oblique cracks at Eisenhower by saying what this country needs is leadership. But all of them are avoiding criticism of Eisenhower personally and by name.

He has remained so popular they might find it unpopular for themselves to do otherwise.

The President's present trip abroad is another illustration:

Everywhere he goes he is wildly welcomed since, no matter how Europeans and Asians may feel about the United States, their image of Eisenhower is that of a friendly, well-intentioned man.

It may be argued, since America has been so generous with aid to them and remains their chief protection against communism, that in welcoming Eisenhower they are in effect saying hello to Santa Claus.

But then you have to remember the Soviets always speak well of him, too. This becomes understandable in terms of Eisenhower himself when you look back over the record of what he has said since becoming President.

You almost never find him talking in terms which could be considered provocative or belligerent or hostile. Instead, he has emphasized patience and restraint even when talking firmly.

In addition, he has carefully avoided personal attacks on others, thus depriving them of any excuse for attacking him personally.

All this is in contrast to the attitude of many people, at home and abroad, toward, say, former presidents Truman and Roosevelt who were often up to their necks in fights.

It might be argued here that if Eisenhower had been as willing as Truman and Roosevelt to initiate new and controversial programs, and fight as they did for them, he'd be hit with brickbats, too.

But their temperaments were different from Eisenhower's. Both were more belligerent and both were more aggressive toward others, especially in showing irritation toward opponents.

Eisenhower, for instance, had plenty of excuse for hitting back at the late Sen. Joseph McCarthy but avoided it. He could have lashed out, but didn't, at Premier Nikita Khrushchev for some of the difficulties the Soviet created.

Whether or not this adds up to the best kind of leadership is another, and long, discussion in itself. But certainly Eisenhower has been popular and free from abuse.

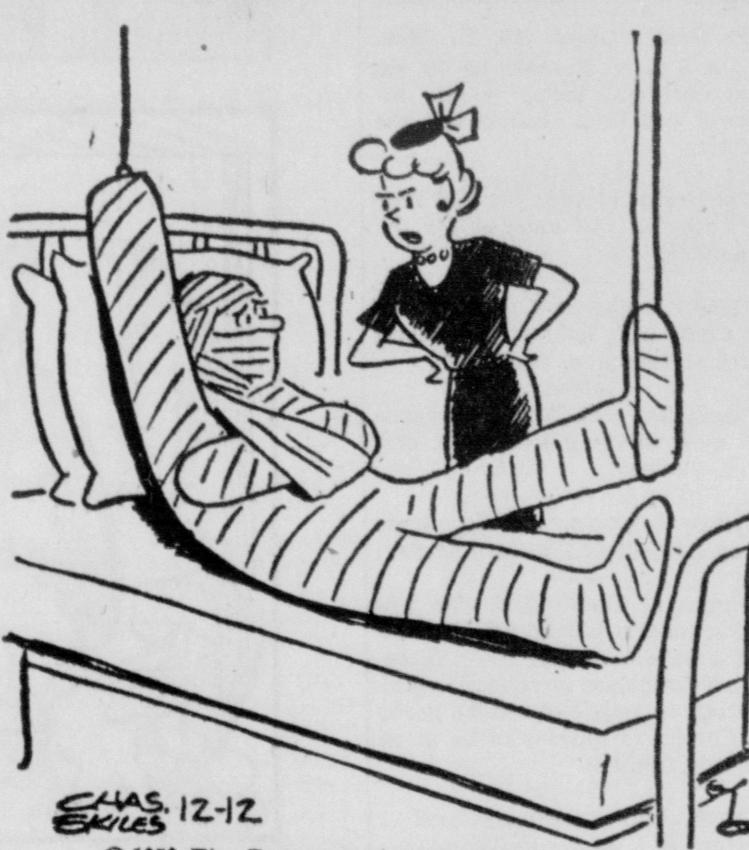

This soft-word technique of Eisenhower may have a moderating effect on his White House successor if only because it has proved politically so successful for Eisenhower, if this much is granted.

That argument is fallacious for another reason: Truman and Roosevelt lieutenants—like Secretary of State Dean Acheson and Secretary of the Interior Harold Ickes—were bashed for years.

But so were Truman and Roosevelt.

LAFF-A-DAY

Religious Freedom Increasing In Cuba under Castro Regime

NEW YORK (AP) — Three Protestant ministers report an increase in religious freedom in Cuba since the Caribbean isle swapped Dictator Batista for Revolutionary Castro.

The trio, the Revs. Clair Hutchings of Colonia, N.J.; Heman Sweet of Wallingford, Conn.; and Dr. Frank Stranges of New York were in Cuba preparing for an evangelism campaign next winter.

"We were actually given a diplomatic reception by the Cuban government," says Dr. Walter O. Parr. Dr. Parr, who has in his charge three rural Presbyterian churches in western Kentucky, did take a filing at politics 15 years ago. He ran for Congress in Kentucky and lost.

Now 59, he has not only preached rural development, but brought in agricultural experts for practical advice to his congregations.

Perhaps his biggest project has been organizing private foreign aid. In recent years he has loaded eight freighters with supplies for the needy overseas.

Korea is his special interest. In 1952, while a minister in Texas, he saw his Marine son off to war with advice about "looking to the future."

Sgt. Walter O. Parr Jr., replied bitterly: "In a world like this, what's a young man to look forward to?"

After the farewell, Dr. Parr made a silent vow.

"If my son returns," he told himself, "I will load a ship like that troopship and sent it to Korea with things of peace and goodwill."

The son returned. The vow was kept.

Dr. Parr organized the Texas Friendship Committee from his office at Fort Worth.

The Texas Friendship, loaded with donated farm animals, tools and food left for Korea in 1955. With tears in his eyes Korean President Syngman Rhee personally thanked Dr. Parr, who had gone along on the ship.

A year later a 4-H Friendship sailed for Korea, and the trend was established.

Presbyterian

As you worship at the Presbyterian Church during Advent the thoughts uppermost in your mind will be "The Unspeakable Gift", the Christ Child, God's gift of His Son to the world.

You will consider how God speaks to you through each member of the Holy family, — through the mother Mary, — and Joseph also.

In the first century the Roman ruler commanded every man to go to his own city to register and pay the tax. And Joseph also went to Bethlehem. It would seem, God used Joseph because He had some definite things He wants us to think about, which can only be said through Joseph.

"And Joseph Also," is the theme for the 10:30 a. m. hour of worship. The Rev. Donald Mitchell will read the Scripture from the Gospel according to Luke, chapter 2:17.

The music for this third Sunday in advent will be an anthem by the junior choir which is directed by Mrs. Fred Tammany. The choir also will sing an arrangement with the adult choir, "The Citizens of Chartres" by Dickenson with Mrs. Clark Will directing. The congregation will join in the singing of carols: "While Shepherds Watched", "Good Christian Men Rejoice" and "The First Nowell."

The offertory will be "The Morning Star" by Bach, arranged for organ and piano duet by Goldsworthy. Mrs. Joseph Adkins will be at the piano and Mrs. Theodore L. Huston at the organ. Mrs. Huston will also play "Joyous Changes on Three Carols" by Andrews; and Postlude on "Break Forth, O

Church of Christ

"The Greatest Work that God Allows Mankind To Do" will be the sermon topic presented by Jack Rankin, minister, at the 10:30 a. m. Worship Service at the Church of Christ tomorrow.

"You have taught me the truth. Because of you I have a hope of heaven, and I shall be eternally grateful to you." Has anyone ever said this to you? If not, you have missed one of the most sublime joys known in this world. Soul-winning is the greatest work that God allows mankind to do. No angel was ever permitted the privilege of eternal fame: "They that turn many to righteousness" shall shine "as the stars for ever and ever" (Daniel 12:3). Included in this lesson are some very definite and practical things women can do to use their talents in personal work.

Beauties Heavenly Light." In the evening Westminster Fellowship will meet early at 6:30 p. m. in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Hardy, 826 N. Court St., for a special program.

age. It carries the most satisfying rewards, for both time and eternity, for both the soul-winner and the soul won.

From every viewpoint, there is no work comparable to it. (Proverbs 11:30 "And he that is wise winneth souls" ASV). Since the rewards are so glorious, why do we find so few busily engaged in this particular work. Soul-winning is a work which enjoys certain guarantees from the Lord.

One of the guarantees is that of eternal fame: "They that turn many to righteousness" shall shine "as the stars for ever and ever" (Daniel 12:3). Included in this lesson are some very definite and practical things women can do to use their talents in personal work.

The Nursery is open during the 10:45 a. m. service under the direction of Mrs. Edward Cross. Mrs. Carl Herrmann will preside at the organ at both services.

Trinity Lutheran

This third Sunday in Advent, duplicate Worship Services will be conducted by Pastor Carl G. Zehner. The theme he has chosen for his sermon this Sunday at the 8:30 and 10:45 a. m. services will be "The Golden Calf" based on Ex. 32:19.

The adult choir, led by Fred Hebel, will lead the singing at the early service. At the late service, the children's choir, under the direction of Mr. Clifford Kerns, will sing an anthem entitled "The Angels Message".

The Nursery is open during the 10:45 a. m. service under the direction of Mrs. Edward Cross. Mrs. Carl Herrmann will preside at the organ at both services.

Services will be held at Christ Church, Lick Run at 2 p. m.

THE
OF
ALL*THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Tiger Clash with Blue Lions Brings 40-37 Cage Victory

Circleville's cage Tigers clawed at the ice with a fielder a minute after an early lead then hung on for dear life to preserve a cherished 40-37 victory at Washington C. H. last night.

It marked the second win in two

South Central Ohio League starts for the Tigers and the second loop loss for the Blue Lions.

With Circleville leading 38-37, Tiger Jake Bailey calmly walked to the foul line with 14 seconds remaining in the test to sink two foul shots which insured victory.

The contest had reached a fast and furious pace in the last quarter when the Blue Lions staged an uphill battle to come within one point of deadlocking the count.

CIRCLEVILLE started with a bang on offense and defense to hold a 11-1 lead at the end of the first quarter which saw the basket-hungry Blue Lions go without a field goal.

The Tigers promptly ran the count to 13-1 before WCH cracked the ice with a fielder a minute after the second quarter started.

The contest reached a livelier stride in the second canto as the Blue Lions cut the Tiger margin to 21-17 at halftime.

Linden Gibson provided the Tigers with a much-needed spark in the third quarter as he hit for three straight drives to keep the locals out in front.

Washington came back pressing in the third frame which signaled plenty of action to come before the final whistle would blow.

The Tigers found themselves with a 33-25 margin as the third quarter came to an end, but they were aware that the game was far from over. The Blue Lions fought back valiantly as the closing second ticked away, but saw their hopes fade and disappear on Bailey's trip to the foul line.

BOTH teams played it deliberate most of the time in an effort to find weaknesses. Each team suffered moments when it was difficult to find the range on the hoop.

Coach Dick Snouffer's cagers displayed a balanced scoring attack with Center Larry Hannahs leading the way with 11 points. Bob Shadley came through with nine, Bailey had eight and Linden Gibson and Dave Hicks ended with six each. Sam Weller didn't score, but turned in some valuable rebounding and defensive work.

Bill Southworth of WCH was high man for the evening with 14 points. Terry Stillings contributed nine and Dave Reno and Pete Fersick added six each.

Hicks opened scoring for the locals on a neat drive shortly after the tipoff. Bailey quickly added two long fielders before Southworth dropped in a foul shot for Fersick added six each.

Shadley then hit a jump shot and Bailey made it 10-1 on a dazzling drive and layup. Shadley potted a charity throw and the first quarter ended, 11-1, in favor of the Tigers.

A minute after the second quarter started, Fersick finally dumped a jump shot to give the Blue Lions their first bucket of the evening.

CIRCLEVILLE slowed down in the second canto to score 10 points, with Hannahs getting six of them. Shadley added a jump shot and Bailey made good on two foul tosses.

Stillings and Southworth led the way for WCH as the hosts suddenly started to roll in racking up 16 points during the second episode.

Gibson started things off right for the Tigers in the third quarter by scoring on a hard drive for a 23-17 CHS margin. Before the Blue Lions could get their defenses realigned, the charging forward scored on two more swift drives.

Renfro, Fersick and Stillings combined forces to keep the visitors within striking distance. The third stanza ended, 32-25, but plenty of action was to follow.

Washington staged a serious threat early in the fourth chapter when Fersick and Flee hit consecutive buckets from underneath to score by fours.

Ashville Topples Saltcreek For Fifth Straight Victory

Ashville's cage superiority came to the front last night as it took a 40-14 halftime lead to topple invading Saltcreek, 71-40.

Substituting freely in the final two periods, the Broncos added a Warrior scalp to its belt for win No.5 in a row without a defeat.

The Warriors were dropped to their fourth loss and out of a five-way tie for first place in the Pickaway County League. Ashville, meanwhile, remained in a league leadership tie with Walnut with identical 2-0 slates.

tally for the night, highest of any Ohio players thus far this season, wasn't his only contribution, he grabbed 17 rebounds as the Bearcats made it 4-0 for the season.

A torrid 24-9 lead was racked up by the victors in the first seven minutes.

Cincinnati sank 47 of 86 field goals and the Hawk's hit with 32 of 82 tries.

At halftime the Bearcats lead 57-33 with Robertson accounting for 25 of the total.

The defeat was the Hawks' first in four starts.

In the Ohio Conference action Friday, Kenyon trimmed Hiram 74-59 and Denison edged Marietta 75-71.

The lead in the Denison-Marietta game changed hands 19 times and tied 13 times. Shooting percentages were low for both teams as the Big Red hit for 30 per cent and the Pioneers for 31.

Top man of the evening was Marietta's Sam Hirt with 23 points. Jerry Weddell hit for 21 for the victors.

In other Ohio games Friday, Bluffton dropped in 22 of 30 free throws to down Albion (Mich.) 78-62. Both teams scored an equal number of field goals.

Wooster handed Western Reserve its fourth straight cage loss, 70-69; Clarion (Pa.) nipped Malone of Canton 79-64; Allegheny dumped Penn 62-45, and McKen-dree of Illinois downed Central State 80-76.

The Steel Bowl at Pittsburgh and the Treasure State classic at Bozeman, Mont., Friday night opened a big list of major college basketball tournaments that will run through the Christmas Holidays. Next Friday, four more big tournaments will get under way.

But while Pittsburgh and Duquesne were setting up a home-town finale for the Steel Bowl for the second straight year, and Oklahoma City and Montana State gained the finals of the Bozeman affair, two Atlantic Coast Conference teams were making it tough for a pair of Big Eight Conference teams at Raleigh, N.C.

Slightly favored Kansas State, defending Big Eight champions, was handed a 66-59 defeat by North Carolina State. Kansas, a winner over Northwestern and Texas Tech, was beaten 60-49 by North Carolina.

Pitt, soundly trounced by Ohio State and Purdue recently, pulled a shocker by downing St. John's of Brooklyn—the 1959 National Invitational champions — 74-73. William and Mary, undefeated in four starts, was beaten by Duquesne 53-52.

Oklahoma City ran up to 40-26 halftime lead over San Francisco and salled into the finals with a 71-54 victory. Larry Chaney led Montana State to a 81-75 victory over Oregon with 32 points.

Pitt, which beat Duquesne in the Steel Bowl final last year, trailed St. John's 43-54 in the second half. Then Pitt rallied for 15 straight points for a 58-54 lead and the ball game. Duquesne won its third straight, after trailing 22-26 at halftime.

Jim Bottomley
Dies at Age 59

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Sunny Jim Bottomley, 59, the only player in major league baseball history to drive in 12 runs in one game, died of a heart ailment while Christmas shopping Friday.

The former first baseman, the National League's most valuable player in 1929 and a veteran of 15 seasons with the St. Louis Cardinals, Cincinnati Reds and old St. Louis Browns, lived up to his name until the end. He was joking with a friend only moments before he was found slumped over the wheel of his car in a downtown parking lot.

It was on Sept. 16, 1924, that James Leroy Bottomley wrote his name into the record books with six hits good for 12 RBI against the Brooklyn Dodgers. The hits included two home runs, a double and three singles.

City Schools Decorate for The Holidays

Bulletin boards in the high school and Corwin Street buildings have taken on a holiday air.

In the high school building, Miss Mary Catherine Adkison, librarian, and her helpers have designed and executed a formal and conventional board. On a silver background they pasted metallic flower post which spell the phrase "Season's Greetings".

Seven pupils from the seventh grade, under the guidance of Mrs. Mildred Dowden, have planned and produced an original art piece with a religious theme.

On a large deep blue background are cut-outs of the shepherds, wise men and animals which surrounded the stable that night. In the center is a thatched creche inside of which is the Holy Family.

Overhead are the stars, among them the one brilliant star. The entire board is framed in mountain laurel.

Pupils who prepared this board were David Bozman, Richard Crable, Barbara Dean, Marinel Leist, Cynthia Thompson, Carol Wise and Nancy Yates.

Sheriff Charles H. Radcliff was re-elected treasurer of the Buckeye State Sheriff Assn during an annual convention held this week at the Deshler-Hilton Hotel in Columbus.

Sheriff Radcliff was re-elected without opposition. He is serving his seventh straight year at the treasurer post.

The Convention started Wednesday and ended with a banquet last night. The session listed several speakers, including Ohio's ex-Sen. John Bricker and agents from the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Sheriff Dean Ellis of Marietta and Washington County was elected new president of the organization. Tom Fusal of Ashtabula County was named first vice president.

SHERIFF Radcliff is a past president of the association. He held the top post in 1950, the year the group purchased the mobile crime lab in cooperation with the Moose Clubs of Ohio.

The mobile unit was turned over to the state for use in Ohio's 88 counties as an aid to local law enforcement.

Drug Price Prober Sees Need for Federal Controls

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairman Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn) of the Senate Antitrust and Monopoly subcommittee said today an investigation of drug prices already has shown a need for federal legislation.

He made the comment to newsmen as E. G. Upjohn, president of the Upjohn Co. of Kalamazoo, Mich., was called for questioning about his firm's pricing of anti-arthritis drugs.

The Upjohn company was listed by the subcommittee as one of the three principal manufacturers of cortisone derivatives used in treating persons afflicted with arthritis.

Officials of the other two drug firms, Schering Corp. and Merck & Co., were heard earlier in the week.

Kefauver said Upjohn's testimony would close out the subcommittee's inquiry into the pricing of arthritis medicines. But another round of hearings, possibly dealing with the prices of antibiotics, is planned for late next month.

While Kefauver said the need for new legislation already is evident, he said it is too early to say what form it should take. Before deciding on that, he said, officials of the Food and Drug Administration and other federal agencies will be consulted.

A small New Jersey drug maker, Seymour N. Blackman, told the subcommittee Friday the prescription drug industry should be treated as a public utility, with its profits and advertising expenditures regulated by the government.

Blackman, executive secretary of Premo Laboratories, Inc., South Hackensack, N.J., contended that the public is being overcharged for drugs to the tune of three-quarters of a billion dollars annually.
